the Dist.t Head quarters, for ~~three~~ two months in ~~that~~ even year, there appears to be some practical difficulties & ~~heavy~~ heavy responsibility for Govt. to see that the intended charity is regularly & satisfactorily carried out. The Dy: Comrs will have, probably, to be consulted, ~~before~~ if Govt. should be in favour of undertaking the responsibility.

3. The allotment for each District is Rs 1000 & the ~~int~~ annual interest thereon, till the loan is repaid, is Rs 62-8-0 and the "Arvattige" has to be arranged for out of this sum.

4. The petr. states that he is very old; that he has no issue & ~~that~~ prays that Govt. ~~should~~ may arrange to carry out the charity.

5. There appear to be no precedents.

What is meant by Avenue and who is to conduct the Chairs are some of the doubts to be cleared. Each District Head Quarter has been allotted Rs 10000/- or Rs 62.8.0 for the two months from 1.4 to 31.5. of each year. Who has to draw the fee interval year after year and how the Chairs when to be conducted have to be decided.

7. The aggregate sum of Rs 10000 is large enough and the form of the Chairs stipulated seems to be of too trivial a nature for the amt. Perhaps the donor may be willing under better advice to change the form for a more substantial one.

8. May these points be brought to the notice of the donor and a reply asked for as early as possible?

9. The idea is a very laudable one. The amount need not be distributed equally among all the Eight towns.

10. Bangalore & Mysore may be given Rs 100/- each, and the other ~~eight~~ six towns Rs 50/- each. There can 8 aravattigas arranged in each of the cities & 4 in each of the other towns, providing an adequate remuneration for the man & also reserve for extras such as curds & panakam on special days.

11. The Presidents of municipalities or the local Authorities can easily arrange through the local temple Archaks & the employees of local A Amachatrams. If approved they will be consulted.

12. Aravattigas are, I believe, non-B. Communal & are Cosmopolitan institutions.
